MEETING AT THE STANBOROUGH CENTRE WATFORD

<https://u3asites.org.uk/woodside>

Charity Registration Number.: 1182140

Hello everyone

I am writing this sitting on a balcony overlooking the sparkling sea at Deal, in brilliant sunshine, at the end of January! One of the great advantages of being retired is the flexibility of being able to look at the weather forecast and book trips and holidays at short notice when it appears it will be warm and sunny. Although I enjoyed my job (well, apart from OFSTED!) at this time of year too I am grateful that I do not have to be up at 7am scraping ice from my car windscreen. When I retired I also packed away some rather dull, formal clothes and heeled shoes, assuming I would be unlikely to wear them again, unfortunately only to have to unearth them for all-too-frequent funerals and memorials. Another joy of being retired at this time of year is the daily- changing sight of trees in blossom and clouds of snowdrops seen in the daylight, rather than just at weekends.

I hope everyone enjoyed lots of pancakes last week - with lemon and sugar only in my house - and I look forward to seeing you at our March meeting. Heather

Today's Speaker:- Colin Smith "Coffee from tree to cup"

To help the environment please remember to bring your own drinking vessel.

Job Of A Laughtime by Brad Ashton

Interspersed with jokes making us all laugh, Brad gave a really interesting background to his joke and sketch writing, and an insight into many of the comedy greats from the last 60 years. He talked about Ken Dodd and his tax evasion, Tommy Cooper who was always late for gigs and Benny Hill who would never perform in front of people for all of his 39 TV shows which meant all the laughing was dubbed. Who knew John Cleese was married 4 times and all his wives were American. Brad talked about Hilda Baker as well and reminded us of her catchphrase of 'She knows you know'. Next was Jimmy Jewel, Jack Benny and Mike and Bernie Winters. Such a lot to take in. It turns out that Ernie Wise was as stingy as Eric Morecambe used to joke about in many of their sketches. We learnt that Warren Mitchell wasn't first choice for Alf Garnett, the casting directors actually wanted Peter Sellers but he was offered a film.

Personally I think the right choice was made. We heard about Max Miller, Reg Varney, Tony Hancock, David Frost, Norman Wisdom who performed in the USA for 7 years and did 62 cruises before returning to the UK, and Arthur Askey who even had to have his 'ad libs' written down. I found it most interesting that the Two Ronnie's were different formats of comedy but gelled so well, Ronnie Barker being a comedy actor and Ronnie Corbitt a comedian. So much more to say but no more space.

Scam Warning!

Beware Fake Stamps From Amazon & The Internet!

Last week we had a card from the post Office telling us there was a package for us at the Sorting Office which they would not deliver as there was insufficient postage paid.

It turned out to be a Christmas card which had a counterfeit stamp on it! The postal worker said they had hundreds of these, mostly from people who had bought their stamps online. We have informed our relative who sent the card so that they aren't caught again. Another "who would have thought it" moment. Please be aware. Louise
